NOTICE OF DELINQUENCY

The records of the Secretary of State indicate the corporation is delinquent in filing the statement(s) required by statute. All corporations are required to file a Statement of Information with the Secretary of State by their due date as defined by statute.

To avoid the assessment of a penalty, the required statement(s) must be filed with the Secretary of State within 60 days from the Notice Date above. Domestic stock and foreign corporations are subject to a $250.00 penalty. Domestic nonprofit corporations are subject to a $50.00 penalty. Effective January 1, 2006, all domestic nonprofit corporations formed to manage a common interest development (for example: a homeowners' association) will be subject to an additional $50.00 penalty for failure to file the Statement by Common Interest Development Association, for a total of $100.00.

If assessed the penalty for failure to file the required statement(s), the corporation may request the Secretary of State waive the penalty because of reasonable cause or unusual circumstances justifying the corporation's failure to file.
